SECTION V: Agreement

The purpose of the Department of the Air Force Military Spouse Hiring Program is to facilitate the non-competitive appointment of attorneys who are spouses of regular component military members. Information provided will be shared with hiring officials under The Judge Advocate General's qualifying authority.

I agree that I meet the following eligibility requirements for this program: (1) attorney married to a military sponsor currently in the regular component of any branch of service; (2) living in the local commuting area of the position or pending a move to the local commuting area of the position via a permanent change of station (PCS) orders as a sponsored dependent with the military spouse who relocates to the new duty station; (3) married to a military sponsor who has more than six months remaining on orders at the location for which employment is being sought; (4) not currently employed by a DoD legal office within the local commuting area of the position at issue; (5) graduate of a law school accredited by the American Bar Association and have the first professional law degree, and an active (or equivalent) member, in good standing, with the bar of the highest court of a state, U.S. commonwealth, U.S. territory, or the District of Columbia.

I agree to submit the following documents to the Department of the Air Force Legal Career Field Team ("Legal CFT") at AFPC.Legal.CFT@us.af.mil in order to participate in this program:

- Military Spouse Attorney Employment Program Form
- Resume
- Law School Transcript
- Documentation of Active Bar Membership and Good Standing
- Military Spouse's Orders (PII removed)

I agree to inform the Legal CFT (AFPC.Legal.CFT@us.af.mil) of any changes to my profile, to include changes in eligibility status, contact information, employment, and military duty assignment locations or dates.

I agree to have information contained in this form and resume shared with Department of the Air Force hiring officials (and other military service hiring officials, upon request) to facilitate a possible non-competitive appointment as a civilian attorney.
